

COSHH Assessment Statement

The Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH) Regulations 1988 impose statutory responsibilities and duties on the Employer and Employee. To enable these Regulatory duties to be carried out, Armourcoat Limited is committed, so far as is reasonably practicable, to safeguard the health of its Employees and other people who may be exposed to operations or substances hazardous to health caused by Armourcoat's business.

1 Where work is liable to expose Employees to any substances hazardous to health, it is the intention that Armourcoat Limited, so far as is reasonably practicable to ensure that:

- 1.1. Suitable and sufficient assessment of the risk to health and of the steps necessary to comply with the Regulations is carried out.
- 1.2. Exposure is prevented or, where this is not reasonably practicable, adequately controlled to minimise the risk to health.
- 1.3. Any control measures provided are properly used, effectively maintained, periodically examined and, if appropriate, tested.
- 1.4. Monitoring exposure is carried out in appropriate case
- 1.5. Health surveillance will be undertaken where appropriate.
- 1.6. The assessment is reviewed as and when necessary and any amendments required will be communicated to the affected Employees and incorporated in all relevant documents.

2 It shall be the duty of every Employee to work to:

- 2.1. Make full and proper use of any control measures including protective equipment, and to report any defects detected to his/her Supervisor.
- 2.2. Present him/herself during working hours for health surveillance procedures when necessary and when under medical care provide such information concerning his/her health as Armourcoat Limited may reasonably require.

Whilst every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the information contained in this document, the information should not be relied upon as a substitute for formal advice. Armourcoat Ltd, its employees and agents will not be liable for any loss or damage, of any kind, arising out of or in connection with the use of this publication.
